- Generate New Clients Who Now See You As The Leader In Your Field
- Help Your Clients To Reach New Heights In Their Field
- And Create The Breakthrough In Your Career That Will Give You The Impact And The Income You've Always Dreamed Of!

Imagine this...

It's 9:45 am, your day started by signing a few copies of your Best-Selling book. You are overnighting them to several new clients that have signed on to work with you to create massive breakthroughs in their business and life.

You're about to prepare for a Podcast interview where the host will ask you about your Best-Selling book, your TV appearances, your life's story and how you are helping people to live their best lives through your training, teaching, and coaching.

This afternoon you will host a virtual training session for dozens of high performers who turn to you for weekly inspiration, motivation and tactics to live more fully, with more freedom and wealth, using the Jack Canfield Success Principles™ that you have mastered and now share with others.

Today isn't a special day.

In fact, it's a regular day.

A day where much of your time is spent helping others who have sought you out to help get their life or their business back on track. To give them an edge. To show them how to be successful even when things look impossible.

This is who you have become. And it all started with one simple decision you made to learn from, work with and implement the teachings from one of the greatest success leaders of all time...Jack Canfield; a true Living Legend in the Success field.

You made a decision to stop trying to reinvent the wheel and make mistake after mistake and instead follow in the footsteps of a giant in the success field who wanted to pass down his life's lessons and lend a hand in developing the next great generation of change-makers, world leaders and success coaches.

A decision to stop going at it alone and instead, leverage a series of proven systems, powerful media and marketing assets and world-class training to propel you forward.

If you are finally ready to:

- Start teaching, training and leading your community to financial independence, to lifestyle freedom, to fruitful and happier times in their life...
- Help your clients and customers to become better parents, better spouses, better bosses, better team players, better leaders, and better role models...
- Inspire your fans and followers to overcome dark times and overpower dark situations and turn their lives around...

...then you need to pay close attention to what we have put together for you in the first-ever program for you to become a:

Jack Canfield Protégé

As the Jack Canfield Protégé, you will go through a 12-month training and media experience to leverage the same tools and Success Principles that Jack Canfield has used to sell more than 500 million books, impact millions of students and deliver training and coaching to 1.1 million people on Facebook, 1.2 million people on Twitter, 127,000 subscribers on YouTube and 372,000 on Instagram.

This is in addition to the hundreds of thousands of people that receive Jack's emails every day or the tens of thousands of students that sit in Jack's seminars and live trainings every year. To be trained by a person with these credentials is truly a life-changing experience if you are ready.

At the core of the business Jack Canfield has built, and to learn how you can follow in his footsteps, we have identified three major areas that you will work through during your 12-months as a Jack Canfield Protégé.

#1: As A Jack Canfield Protege, We Guarantee That You Will Become A Best-Selling Author®

Everything changed for Jack when he published the first Chicken Soup For The Soul book back in 1993. That book, and more than 250 titles in the series have gone on to sell more than 500 million copies worldwide.

That book has been a calling card for Jack for more than 27 years and it shows no signs of slowing down or becoming irrelevant.

Having a book, and using it as your calling card, is the most important asset you can have to establish yourself as an authority in your marketplace.

The problem for most experts is that writing your own book is hard.

It takes a long time to write and most people who say they want to write a book, never get around to it. Even Jack didn't write all of the chapters in the Chicken Soup For The Soul books, instead, he designed a system that produced the end results he wanted from the books.

But everyone wants to write a book, or follow a system that results in the same experience and success Jack achieved.

Yet, the task of writing a book can feel daunting. Or maybe you wonder if your story is even worth publishing?

You might've been seduced by the plethora of people on the Internet telling you to put nothing more than a pamphlet together, publish it on Amazon and call it a book. This is not the success path you want to take.

That route isn't fooling anyone. And if you want to be a Jack Canfield Protégé, you need to publish a book that makes a powerful first impression. A book that is printed in hardcover and comes with built-in credibility.

That is why we have secured a guaranteed publishing deal for everyone involved as a Jack Canfield Protégé to co-author a brand new book with Jack Canfield.

The title of the book is called Success, and through our publisher, CelebrityPress® Publishing, we are guaranteeing the book will hit at least one Amazon or Barnes & Noble Best-Seller's List, forever giving you the title of Best-Selling Author®.

This book will give you instant credibility as both a Best-Selling book, as well as the fact that your chapter will be included with Jack Canfield's, forever linking you together.

As a Jack Canfield Protégé, we will even gift you 25 hardcover copies of the book for you to give to your best clients, local media and even prospects who are thinking about working with you. Giving them a copy, and even signing the inside cover, will give you an unfair advantage over everyone else who is trying to make an impression in your market.

And this book is just the beginning.

#2: As a Jack Canfield Protégé, we are also going to....
Have Jack Canfield
Personally Interview You
On His TV Show,
*Hollywood Live,

And then, Air Your Interview On ABC, NBC, CBS & FOX Affiliates Around The Country

Writing a book and hitting the Best-Seller's list is an incredible accomplishment. As a Jack Canfield Protégé, we don't just want to give you a book that sits on the shelf and gives you credibility.

We want to ensure that you leverage the power of media to tell everyone about your book, about your story and about the people you are helping.

As a Jack Canfield protégé, you need to gain exposure, market yourself and what you do and ensure that the people who need your help know that you exist.

One of the best ways to tell your story is to be interviewed.

To have a credible host ask you about your life, about your talents and skills and about the ways that you are making a positive difference in the world.

However, getting on the media can be challenging.

The media has to know who you are and that you are going to be able to perform when the cameras turn on. They want to know that you are a professional and are going to deliver a stellar performance their audience will love.

This becomes a problem if you've never been in the media before. It's the classic chicken and the egg scenario.

As a Jack Canfield Protégé, we are going to give you the upper hand, and we are going to deliver it to you on a silver platter.

This September, in Hollywood, CA we are bringing your fellow, Jack Canfield protégé members to personally meet Jack Canfield and an Emmy® Award-Winning Film Crew will be there to film the whole thing as Jack interviews you on his TV Show, Hollywood Live.

On this show, Jack will ask you about your story, what you do and how you are helping people. You'll have an opportunity to tell the viewers how to get in touch with you to learn more and leave them excited to work with you.

Your personal interview will be about 10 minutes and with Jack personally guiding your interview, you know that you will be in great hands with someone who knows exactly how to frame the questions and help you look your best.

After the taping, the interview is fully edited to make you look like a star.

This is the perfect interview to share with your local media, podcast hosts and others to show them the expert and leader that you are. After watching it, they would be crazy not to have you on as a guest of their show as well. Having this type of professional interview created and edited professionally will give you another amazing calling card.

This interview is also perfect to share on your website as the most credible way to introduce prospects to you and your work.

Previous guests on the show have posted the interview on social media, put them on DVD or flash drives to mail to prospects. We have even chopped up each question to be its own mini video to be shared in email and online with your clients and prospects.

Plus, as a Jack Canfield protégé, once all the interviews have been edited, a snippet from your interview will be combined into a "Best Of" show that we have secured guaranteed placement on ABC, NBC, CBS, and FOX affiliates to air for you.

That means as soon as the show airs (and we will tell you when it does), you will be able to say that you "have been seen on ABC, NBC, CBS and FOX affiliates" in all of your own media and marketing, immediately giving you a boost in credibility and increasing your trust factor to an all-time high.

Now that you have the media necessary to be a Jack Canfield Protégé, we now need you to understand the Success Principles that have guided Jack's career so that you can continue to share these principles with your audience.

That is why everyone in the Jack Canfield Protégé Program will be authorized and given access to:
